DDTC Fiscal Research & Advisory

To Ensure a Balanced Tax System

2022

FOREWORD

Never before has taxation been a prominent subject as widely discussed in numerous layers of society as it is today. Not only are households and businesspeople nowadays trying to acknowledge the relevance of tax regulations to their economic lives, but also showing more empathic concerns on how to respond and anticipate.

This rising awareness coincides with the vast changes in digital businesses and economic integrations across national borders. This has led to a relentless urgency for us to formulate appropriate business plans while pursuing a well-balanced tax system. It is reasonable then to say that a robust tax control framework on the one hand and building participative tax policymaking on the other hand are imperative to develop sustainable tax management.

Therefore, comprehensive fiscal research and advisory are vital for us to achieve optimum business decision-making. DDTC Fiscal Research & Advisory, along with its longstanding and proven experiences in taxation and equipped with a capable team of multidisciplinary researchers and practitioners, is highly committed to being steadfast in producing quality services for all taxation stakeholders.

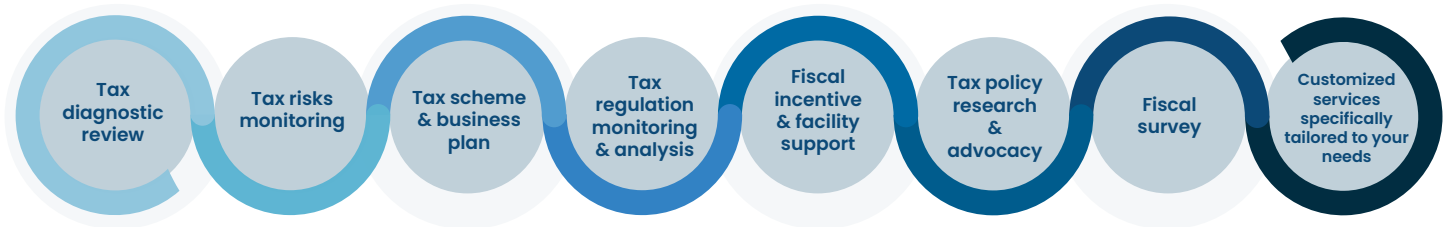

We believe that there are uncharted territories in taxation we are yet to discover. The issues continue to escalate in parallel with innovations that transform the nature of business and the economy. We are beyond enthusiastic to fulfill the need for taxation research and advisory together with you. We are ready to persistently seek better outcomes specifically tailored to your needs and anticipate foreseeable changes by undertaking proactive steps to embrace the challenges.

OUR RESEARCH & ADVISORY SERVICES

DDTC Fiscal Research & Advisory (FRA) provides all-inclusive tax services aimed to help you reach your business objectives.

We realize that businesses and tax system are presently evolving faster than ever, more often not in the same direction. Inevitably, business decisions have to take tax risks into consideration.

Our service range encompasses the entirety of your business cycle, from initial investment, expansion, transactions, to business evaluation.

“Future tax system and business may develop in many directions.”

OUR SERVICES

We offer comprehensive and high-quality service that match.

Tax diagnostic review

Planning your business and transactions requires the identification of all possible tax-related aspects. However, this may be a complicated and exhaustive process. We offer a thorough analysis, including costs that may be incurred and the strategies to prepare the administrative matter.

Tax scheme and business plan

We acknowledge that different decisions may generate different tax consequences. We can provide you with a comprehensive analysis to help you achieve optimum decision-making with a zero risk of dispute.

Tax risks monitoring

Continuously changing Indonesian tax regulations may pose risks to your business, resulting in controversies in the future. Hence, our complete resources may provide you with a comprehensive track record of tax disputes that may coincide with your area. We also provide strategy recommendations to optimize your business efficiency.

Tax law surveillance and analysis

Staying aligned to new regulations may be a difficult task. Substantial risks may ensue, however, if your business and transactions are not aligned. In addition to saving both your time and energy, our non-stop tax monitoring caters to your business with high relevance.

Fiscal incentive and facility support

We notice that many businesses are unaware of their eligibility for tax incentives and how to utilize these incentives. We are here for you to ensure that the facilitation is most beneficial for your business.

Tax policy research and advocacy

When the solution does not lie within the business, it may need the betterment of the current tax system. Specifically designed to your needs, we offer in-depth reviews and analyses on existing or potential upcoming policy issues and their relevance to your concerns.

We also offer you tax advocacy dedicated to evaluating tax policy issues based on the principles of legal certainty, equity, efficiency, revenue adequacy and flexibility.

Fiscal survey

We employ custom-designed methodologies in a specific fiscal survey program. This program helps the public sector and business leaders make economically sound strategy and policy decisions. Through the fiscal survey, we provide an analysis of specific facts and circumstances to be considered by all stakeholders in the taxation arena.

Your every other need

Your need has not been mentioned? Or does it call for adjustments and/or combinations of the services we offer? We are fully aware of that!
